SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this Judgment and that remains unpaid at the time of supervised release.

Defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. Defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

Defendant shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer in an evaluation and treatment, if recommended, for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis or other drug detection measures, not to exceed 52 tests in a one-year period, as directed by the probation officer, and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages. Defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse counseling and/or testing based on a co-pay sliding fee scale approved by the Probation Office. Co-pay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.

The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, electronic communication and data storage device or media, vehicle, and any other property under his/her control to a search, conducted by any United States Probation Officer and such other law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release, without a warrant. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises and other property under the defendant's control may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
